

Nordic Exploratory workshop on epistemic democracy

Villa Marjaniemi, Ruissalo, Turku, 29 October 2016

10.00 – 12.00 Paper session I

Joseph Almog: What is the Original Position?

Jón Olafsson: Decided by the Crowd. Solidarity and Direct Decision-Making

Kaisa Herne: ‘It’s Just Because...’: An Experimental Approach to Two Mechanisms of Accountability

Lunch

13.00 – 14.30 Paper Session II

Sævar Finnbogason: Randomly Selected Mini-publics and Accountability Deficit: A Democratic Legitimacy Problem?

Salvör Nordal: Crowdsourced or Outsourced. The Iceland’s Constitutional Process and Legitimacy

Coffee

15.00 – 17.00 Paper Session III

Ekim Arbatli: Occupation of Public Spaces as an Experiment in Participatory Democracy: Gezi Protests in Turkey

Marko Ahteensuu: Do-It-Yourself-Biology and Citizen Engagement in Science and Technology

Jonathan Kuyper: Beyond Gridlock in Global Climate Negotiations: Two Democratic Arguments against Minilateralism

Discussion or chairing: Lars Binderup

Sauna and dinner from 17.00 onwards

*****

Organized by Jón Olafsson (jonolafs@hi.is) and Maija Setälä (maiset@utu.fi)

Funded by The Joint Committee for Nordic Research Councils in the Humanities and Social Sciences (NOS-HS)